

CALL FOR PAPERS

Workshop on Applications of Ad Hoc Networks

<http://spider.eng.auburn.edu/AANET03/>

To be held in conjunction with
2003 International Conference on Parallel Processing (ICPP-2003)
Kaohsiung, Taiwan, ROC
October 6-9, 2003

This workshop will focus on fundamental challenges and issues in the fields of applications of ad-hoc networks. Our goal is to bring together leading researchers in this hot field of research in order to recognize wide range of applications of ad-hoc networks and the fundamental challenges and future prospects to achieve it. We believe that it is very important to capture the state of the art as well as the important trends of this new and exciting area.

Topics of Interest

The scope of the workshop includes, but not limited to the following topics in the context of wireless ad hoc networks:
